

Impax Asset Management expands sales team

London – 18 September, 2014, Impax Asset Management Limited (“Impax”) announces two key appointments to its sales team.

Meg Brown joins as an Associate Director, UK Business Development for the firm’s listed equity products, with a remit to target the Wealth Management community. Meg has been working as an independent Sustainable Investment Consultant since January 2013. Prior to this she was an analyst in sustainable and climate-related investment at Citi Investment Research. She holds a BSc in Zoology from Bristol University and an MSc in Environment & Development from the London School of Economics.

Harry Lambert has been appointed as an Associate Director, Fund Investor Relations Specialist in the Global Business Development team, with responsibility for developing and managing relationships with Impax’s private equity and real estate clients. He has worked in fund investment, investor relations and fundraising roles at Pantheon Ventures, Hermes GPE and Coller Capital. Harry holds a BA in Economics, Politics and International Studies from the University of Warwick.

Ominder Dhillon, Managing Director, Global Business Development & Client Service, commented: “We are delighted to welcome Meg and Harry to Impax. They bring a deep knowledge of our markets, a proven track record and strong investor relationships.”
